Welcome to the Carrick Water Music Festival 2016

12 years.....a Festival!

2016 marks a dozen years of growing, tweaking and striving by our committee to bring the best artists, musicians and performers to Carrick-on-Shannon.

Crossing all genres and tastes from Ragtime to Revolution, Baroque to Broadway, Weaving to Workshops, Film to Family Fun, Opera to World Class Piano Recitals! And if none of the above grabs you why not combine the ancient practice of Yoga accompanied by soothing sounds while floating on a Stand Up Paddle Board - it's not called the Water Music Festival for nothing!

With great interest in this year's events, be sure to book your tickets in-good time with our Festival partner The Dock.

Tickets can be booked in person, by phone +353 71 9650828 or online at www.thedock.ie.

A sincere thank you to all our patrons, partners, sponsors, volunteers and venues who make this entirely voluntary-ran Festival possible.

2016 FESTIVAL COMMITTEE:
Kathleen Coleman, Zoë Dunne
Liam Farrell, Rebecca Farrell,
Gerard Fitzgerald.

THE PIPES THE PIPES

VENUE: The Dock Arts Centre

PRICE: €16

A music and live art performance devised by Donal Dineen, produced by The Dock and Siobhan O Malley.

The Pipes, The Pipes is a homage to the singular magic of the Uilleann Pipes. Since it premiered with a sold out performance at The Dock last year it has gone on to be performed in Dublin and Paris to critical and audience acclaim. Featuring the playing of three exceptional pipers, Padraig McGovern, Leonard Barry and Maitiu Ui Casaide, the live show also features contributions by French visual artist Lionel Palun with visual input from Donal Dineen who will respond live to the mesmerising soundwaves and conjure images that enhance the musical flow.

A must see for music and art lovers alike!

Exhibition & Launch: A Tapestry Journey

VENUE: Keith Nolan Photography Studio, Bridge Street (above Wispy's)

PRICE: Exhibition - Free
Workshop - €15

Councillor Sinead Guckian officially opens this exhibition, which will be open daily from 11am - 5pm, July 13th to 20th.

“Exploring traditional and innovative ways of using fibres to create works that reflect the way I see the world have always occupied my life”.

Using a homemade weaving frame, made from scaffolding bars, Frances will weave a tapestry in the time consuming way of past masters but with a contemporary twist. With discarded ropes and twine found along canal and river walks mixed with a variety of yarns she will interact with visitors while she works to create a unique woven tapestry. Her passion, energy and enthusiasm will be shared generously. Frances Crowe graduated with a degree in Fine Art Painting from NCAD. In her final year she accidentally discovered woven tapestry and fibre arts. She now works as an educator, curator, collaborator, artist and maker.

For more information phone 087 7760 250 or visit www.francescrowe.com

An intimate evening of music with Lisa Hannigan, Zoë Conway & John McIntyre in the stunning surroundings of St. George's Church.

LISA HANNIGAN ZOË CONWAY & JOHN MCINTYRE

VENUE: St. George's Church

PRICE: €20

Lisa Hannigan will be previewing songs from her much anticipated forthcoming, 'At Swim', set to be released in August. Since the release of her debut solo album 'Sea Sew', Lisa has collaborated with artists as diverse as Ray LaMontagne, Richard Hawley, Herbie Hancock, Glen Hansard and Aaron Dessner.

'Sea Sew' went double platinum, was nominated for the Choice Music Prize and the Mercury Prize in the UK, while her sophomore album, 'Passenger', went straight in at Number 1 in Ireland on its first week of release and earned Lisa yet another Choice Music Prize nomination.

Zoë Conway has performed with an impressive list of artists including Riverdance, Damien Rice, Lou Reed, Nick Cave, Rodrigo y Gabriella to mention but a few. In contrast to this, she has been an important figure within classical music circles in Ireland and abroad, as her crossover discipline has allowed her the pleasure of appearing as soloist with acclaimed orchestras such as The Irish Chamber Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra and BBC Symphony Orchestra.

John McIntyre began his career as electric guitarist with the indie band, The Revs, performing at festivals including Oxygen, and Slane in Ireland, Reading and Leeds in the UK, and toured extensively in USA, Australia and Europe. He has worked alongside many world renowned producers, and is now producing and recording in many genres.

A Musical Supper with The Drawing Room Opera Company

This promises to be an entertaining evening with extracts from much loved operas including The Magic Flute, Carmen, Cosi Fan Tutte, The Marriage Of Figaro, Die Fledermaus, The Merry Widow and more!

The Drawing Room Opera Company was established in 1997, creating lively, high-caliber events using operatic singers to combine their talents with an evening of fine cuisine. Since then the DROC has entertained many audiences including the Canadian Prime Minister, Bill & Hillary Clinton, The Australian Prime Minister and the American Ambassador to Ireland.

Performers on the night include: Paul Linehan (Tenor), Gyula Nagy (Baritone), Liz Ryan (Mezzo Soprano), Kay Lynch (Soprano), Tim Shaffery (Baritone), David Wray (Piano Accompanist).

THE EDDIE LEE THREE

Sunday
17th July
11.45am

Early Afternoon Jazz Cruise

VENUE: Moon River Pleasure Cruiser
Boarding 11.45am, sailing 12.15pm for 1 hour 15 mins

PRICE: €18

Sailing to the superb jazz sounds of Ciaran Wilde, Eddie Lee and Patrick Gilbert.

Three West-of Ireland based musicians formed in 2015 to perform a mixture of jazz standards and originals, from Nat King Cole, Brubeck and bebop classics, plus the odd original thrown in for good measure. Dublin City Jazz Orchestra leader, saxophonist and clarinetist Ciaran Wilde is joined by Patrick Gilbert, an English born, New York educated jazz piano virtuoso who moved to Ireland from Kansas City last year. Patrick's smooth voice perfectly complements his edgy gospel style piano chops, while the groove for this trio is laid down by well known bassist and Sligo Jazz Project founder Eddie Lee.

IVAN ILIĆ

Classical Piano Recital

Sunday
17th July
3.30pm

VENUE: St. Georges's Church

PRICE: €10

Carrick Water Music Festival welcomes the critically acclaimed Serbian-American pianist Ivan Ilíč for a recital featuring pieces from Beethoven, Mozart, Haydn, Chopin, Scriabin and more. Pianist Ivan Ilíč earned degrees in mathematics and music at the University of California Berkeley before moving to Paris on a university fellowship. He then studied at the Conservatoire Supérieur de Paris, where he took a Premier Prix. The City of Paris sponsored his first recording.

Early career highlights included recitals at Carnegie Hall, Wigmore Hall, Ireland's National Concert Hall, Toronto's Glenn Gould Studio, and the American Academy in Rome. He recently gave recital débuts in Vienna, Sao Paulo and Geneva.

"A restless, inquiring mind"
International Piano [UK]

Sligo-based Vocalist Ilse Lubbers accompanied by pianist Derek Mahady will perform a selection of light opera and classical pieces at the beginning of the afternoon's event.

Mick Hanly

with very special guest

Donal Lunny

Sunday
17th July
Doors 7.30pm
Show 8pm

VENUE: The Bush Hotel PRICE: €17

Mick Hanly, one of Ireland's greatest songwriters, will be joined by Donal Lunny, to perform songs from his new album, 'Homeland'.

Together with Micheál O'Domhnaill, he formed Monroe, and supported Planxty on their 1973 tour, subsequently releasing the seminal album Folk Weave. Hanly then recorded two acclaimed solo albums with Donal Lunny, Andy Irvine and Declan Sinnott and toured Europe. In 1981, Hanly joined Moving Hearts as a vocalist, and contributed his own songs to Live Hearts. After their demise in 1985, Mick went solo again. His songs have been covered by Christy Moore, Mary Black and country singer Hal Ketchum, who took Hanly's 'Past the Point of Rescue' into the Top 10 of the US country chart in 1993.

His new album Homeland reunites him with some of Ireland's most respected musicians, on an album that marks a welcome return for one of Ireland's best loved singer songwriters. This is his first new studio album in 11 years. Homeland features: Donal Lunny, Eoghan O'Neill, Keith Donald, Triona Ni Domhnaill, Ray Fean, Steve Cooney, Dave Keary, Kevin Conneff, Fiachra Trench, The Voice Squad, Members of the Castlecomer Male Voice Choir & Members of the Lisdowney Ladies Choir. Produced by Eoghan O'Neill, Homeland features 10 new songs penned by Mick, and a reworking of Micheál O'Domhnaill's arrangement of Lord Franklin featuring harmony vocals by Micheál's sister Triona Ni Domhnaill.
